

WESTMINSTER ENERGY FORUM

RENEWABLE ENERGY: UK & EU INVESTMENT ISSUES & DELIVERABLES

A private discussion for Westminster Energy Forum Members & Invited Guests

May 15th 2008 - Linklaters LLP, One Silk Street, London

SUPPORTED BY:

Linklaters

EVENT SCHEDULE

- 8.20 - 9.00 Registration & refreshments
- 9.05 Welcoming remarks Chris Lambert, Director, Westminster Energy Forum
- Keynote, + Q&A Chair – Siobhan Smyth, Senior Director, Power, Project & Export Finance, RBS
- 9.10 To what extent is the strategic deployment of renewable energies across the Europe a straightforward process through to 2020, given the Commission's recent package and the views of national government & corporates?
Keith Anderson
UK Director, Iberdrola & Scottish Power Renewables
- Session 1: POLICY & INVESTMENT
- 9.45 Future prospects for UK Renewables: government policy perspectives, and delivering the targets
Chris Barton
Director of Renewables Strategy, DBERR, UK Government
- 10.05 Factors affecting the scalability of European renewable deployments : areas to watch 08-09
John Pickett
Partner, Linklaters LLP
- 10.25 Evaluating wind & other renewable deployment across the UK: addressing future barriers to progress & delivery
Russell Marsh
Head of Policy, Green Alliance
- 10.45 Q&A, followed by 30 min coffee break @ 11.00am
- Session 2: CORPORATES & INVESTMENT Chair - Chris Lambert, WEF
- 11.30 Investor critique of RO: will the UK need to bite the feed-in tariff bullet given its revised renewables targets?
Max Ter Linden
Global Head of New Energy Technologies Group, ABN AMRO
- 11.50 Annual industry survey: key features and issues of renewables in power portfolios and utilities' M&A
Andy Cox
Head, Global Transaction Services Energy Team, KPMG
- 12.10 Responding to the challenges set by the EU Renewables Directive from an industry perspective
Dave Rogers
Regional Director, UK, E.ON Climate & Renewables
- 12.30 Q&A, and discussion - scheduled close @ 12.45pm followed by refreshments