

Delivering the UK's Integrated Low Carbon Power & Transport Future

Thursday 25th Jan 2018 at DLA Piper UK LLP, 3 Noble Street, London, EC2V 7EE

EVENT SCHEDULE

- 8.45 Registration & refreshments
9.20 Seating & Opening Remarks

Session One

- 9.30 Post-COP Summit - Govt. Review: issues and implications for the UK in 2018
Archie Young, Head of International Climate Negotiations & Head of UK Delegation to the UNFCCC, BEIS
- 9.55 Mobility as a Service (MaaS) - managing the visionary transport infrastructures
Ben Foulser, Associate Director, KPMG
- 10.20 Putting the low carbon-power-transport nexus at the heart of corporate strategy
John Metzler, Business Development Lead - Power, Shell
- 10.30 Policy and regulation as an incentive for accelerating sector development
Andreas Gunst, Partner, DLA Piper
- 10.40 PANEL discussion
- 11.00 Coffee Break

Session Two - Cross-sector industrial development as an enabler of the sustainable energy economy

- 11.30 Accelerating the uptake of EV - options to fix the nation's range anxiety
Graeme Cooper, Project Director - Electric Vehicles, National Grid
- 11.55 Commercialising fuel cells for distributed generation, back up + vehicle range extension: a coming of age?
Dan Caesar, Communications and Marketing Director, Ceres Power
- 12.25 Smart meters as an enabler towards an electric vehicles and sustainable transport future
John MacNeil, Head of Policy and Communication Scotland, Smart Energy GB
- 12.35 Towards an integrated energy and transport infrastructure in the UK - update on policy requirements and current strategies in support of commercial viability
Nicholas Brooks, Head of Energy, Office for Low Emission Vehicles (OLEV)
- 13:00 Summary and Close