

Evaluating The Clean Growth Strategy for Energy: New Opportunities to Integrate Power, Heat & Transport

Thursday 5th July 2018 at CMS Cameron McKenna Nabarro Olswang LLP, Cannon Place, London

EVENT SCHEDULE

8.45 Registration & refreshments

9.20 Seating & Opening Remarks

Session One: Long Term Policy, & Industrial Adaptation

9.30 Introductory remarks re. the evolution of WEF in 2018-19 across Clean Growth and SDGs

9.35 Clean Growth as part of the UK's Industrial Strategy

Rosa Stewart, Deputy Director for Clean Growth and Carbon Budgets, BEIS

10.00 Delivering Nuclear as a Regulated Asset in the Context of the Clean Growth Strategy

Julia Pyke, Nuclear Development Director, EDF Energy

10.20 Industry Panel (20mins individual talks incl.Q&A)

How do current providers of security of supply transform to remain fit for purpose

Tom Glover, RWE UK Country Chair, Chief Commercial Officer, RWE

Low Emission Mobility

Khurram Gaba, Policy Planning Executive for Refining & Supply, ExxonMobil

11.00 Coffee Break

Session Two: Sustainable Ambitions: Investment and Technology pathways

11.30 Patterns of sustainable investment: incentives and implications for rates of energy infrastructure change

Chris Dodwell, Director of Climate Change, Ricardo Energy & Environment

11.50 10-12min briefings followed by 15 min panel Q&A

1. Data Challenges for Increased Flexibility

2. Data as infrastructure - challenges on integration and market structure

Dan Hopkinson, Director, Electralink
Jon Ferris, Strategy Director, Electron

12.35

Clean Growth London: Aims, Challenges and Opportunities

Daniel Barrett, Lead – Smart Energy, Environment Unit, GLA

13.00 Summary and Close