

The Future of the UKCS, and the Context of the UK's Decarbonisation Strategy

Tuesday 12th November 2019 @ EY, 1 More London Place, London SE1 2AF

EVENT SCHEDULE

8.45 Registration & refreshments

9.10 Seating

Session One

9.15 Supporting the energy transition: progress made during 2019 and challenges ahead
Kristina Dahlstrom, Head of Policy & Strategy, Strategy Directorate, Oil & Gas Authority

9.40 PANEL 1: Economics and Operation of the UKCS

Review of the strategic economic and regulatory challenges facing the UKCS
Mike Tholen, Upstream Policy Director, Oil & Gas UK

Will investors be willing and able to meet the challenges ahead and provide the UKCS with longevity?
Jon Clark, Partner - Mergers & Acquisitions, EY

New mindset for an industry in transition
Ray Riddoch, Managing Director, UK & Sr. VP Europe & Africa, CNOOC International

11.00 Coffee Break

Session Two

11.30 PANEL 2: Developments in the Gas Market

Expectations for the Global Gas market and the context of the UK within it
Gautam Mukherjee, Director of Global Gas Analysis, Centrica

Uncertainties and opportunities regarding the role of hydrogen in support of the UK's decarbonisation strategy
James Greenleaf, Director, Baringa Partners

12.15 PANEL 3: Decarbonisation in the context of the future of the UKCS

Comparing corporate incentives in the oil and gas sector to help mitigate climate change - valuing impact reduction or growth?
Andrew Grant, Senior Analyst, Carbon Tracker

Beyond the cycle - which oil and gas companies are ready for the low carbon transition?
Luke Fletcher, Senior Analyst, Investor Research, Carbon Disclosure Project

13:00 Summary and Close