

Energy & Climate Strategies for Cities

Enhancing Corporate Productivity in Cities via the Clean Energy Transition

Thursday 3rd October 2019 @ Ashurst LLP, London Fruit & Wool Exchange, 1 Duval Square, London, E1 6PW

EVENT SCHEDULE

8.45 Registration & refreshments
9.10 Seating

Welcome & Opening Remarks: Antony Skinner, Partner, Ashurst LLP

Session One

- 9.20 Mobilising the corporate sector to pursue internal decarbonisation: mechanisms and progress
Constant Alarcon, RE100 Campaign Manager, The Climate Group
- 9.45 London Business Climate Leaders: project strategy & outcomes from London Climate Week
Catherine Higham, Europe, Middle East and Africa Manager, Carbon Disclosure Project
- 10.10 Climate impacts in cities and the implications for human performance, adaptation and urban design
Alasdair Young, Partner - Energy & Cities, Buro Happold
- 10.35 Enhancing productivity via sustainability and impact reduction – the future of the ESCO
Lee Stokes, Head of Sustainability Solutions & Innovation, MITIE Energy
- 11.00 Coffee Break

Session Two

- 11.30 UK Energy Innovation Strategy - update on policy tools and goals
Aimee Betts-Charalambous, Innovation Technology Lead, Smart Meter Implementation Programme, BEIS
Sally Fenton, Head of Smart Energy Innovation, SICE, BEIS
- 12.00 Prospects for demand-side innovation for carbon reduction and energy efficiency
Freddie van der Linde, Technical Director, Power, AECOM
- 12.20 Deploying a viable roadmap for EV charging infrastructure at scale
Tanya Sinclair, Director of UK Policy, Chargepoint
- 12.40 Technology, digitisation and the potential of AI for sustainable cities - combining data, cleantech and people for new value creation
Laura Colvine, Vice President Industry, IBM Energy, Environment and Utilities
- 13:00 Close