

UK Energy Security Review Cross-Cutting Risks and Challenges

24th September 2014 at Ernst & Young, 1 More London Place, SE1 2AF, London

EVENT SCHEDULE

8.45 Registration & refreshments

Session One:

9.30 Trends in the UK's exposure to International Energy Markets

Jon Clark, EMEIA Transactions Oil and Gas Leader, Ernst & Young

9.55 Risk of disruption to UK energy supplies - international issues and our resilience

Jonathan Holyoak, Director - International Energy, DECC

PANEL:

10.30 Key uncertainties now facing policymakers

Prof. Rob Gross, Director - ICEPT, Imperial College London & UKERC

Capital Risks for UK/EU Projects and uncertainty regarding investment

Liam O'Keefe, Finance Director, Credit Agricole

11.10 Coffee Break

Session Two:

11.40 Strategic UK Gas import security: 2015 industry project to assess the relative risks

Chris Lambert, Director, Westminster Energy

PANEL:

12.00 European energy security: caught between short term need and long term goals

David Buchan, Senior Research Fellow, Oxford Institute for Energy Studies

How industry views the nature of the energy world at present, and the key questions arising

Michelle Hubert, Head of Energy & Climate Change, CBI

Current challenges to energy sector industrial strategies: managing the risks

Paul Drabwell, Head of Domestic Energy and Climate Change, Department for Business

13.00 Close