

WESTMINSTER ENERGY FORUM

Review of Energy Markets, Smart Energy & Efficiency Policy

Private Seminar - Thursday 13th March 2014
at ARUP, 8 Fitzroy Street, London, W1T 4BQ

ARUP MIRAMAR
ENERGY · INDUSTRIAL · HIGH-TECH · COMMUNICATIONS

EVENT SCHEDULE

8.45 Registration & refreshments

Session One:

9.30 20mins + 10mins Q&A

Evaluating the progress of Ofgem's smarter markets programme and its main demand-side initiatives

Rob Church, Associate Partner for Smart Metering and Smarter Markets, Ofgem

10.00 15mins each + 15mins panel Q&A

From smart meters to smart markets: how do we get the most from our smart investments?

Will Siddall, CIO, ONZO

How the humble smart meter can assist in today's complex energy management landscape

Cass Swallow, UK Strategy Director, Schneider Electric

10.45

Energy price risk and regulatory uncertainty: threats and opportunities for the Opposition's Manifesto

Chris Lambert, Director, WEF

11.00 Coffee Break

Session Two:

11.30 20mins + 10mins Q&A

Demonstrating value - how should demand side benefits be better communicated to customers in the context of energy market prices?

Dr. Neil Pennington, Smart Programme Director, RWEpower and Board Member - Central Delivery Body

12.00 10mins each + 20mins panel Q&A

Where does responsibility for the step change in energy efficiency lie – industry, govt or consumer?

What are the prospects, timelines and cost-benefits for integration of urban demand-side efficiencies?

What role is there for the microgrid to effect change?

Alan Thomson - Head of Energy, Arup

Ben Wilson - CFO, UK Power Networks

Rich Hampshire - Smart Utilities Lead, CGI

Tim Rotheray - MD, Combined Heat & Power Association

13.00 Close